City honors favorite son, Charley Lau

By STEVE O'LEARY
ANP Staff Writer

More than 300 people gathered in Romulus Saturday to pay tribute to the late, great, Charley Lau Jr., who was major league baseball's premier batting instructor until his untimely death last year following a brief bout with cancer.

Lau starred in a variety of sports at Romulus High School before going on to become a journeyman major league player, then blossoming into the league's best hitting instructor, with players like George Brett, Reggie Jackson and Ron Kittle among those that sing his praises.

Saturday, Lau was honored in his hometown of Romulus with the dedication of the high school baseball field as "Charley Lau Memorial Field," an electronic scoreboard proclaiming the field's new moniker, and the unveiling of a stone monument with a bust of Charley as its focal point. The monument was unveiled by Charley Lau, Sr., and the late Lau's widow, Evelyn Lau. Naturally, city hall had designated May 4 as "Charley Lau Day."

Among those paying tribute to Romulus' much-missed hero were members of the Lau family, Mayor Beverly McAnally, members of the city council, State Representative Jim Kosteva, Congressman Bill Ford, Superintendent of Schools Dr. William Bedell, Board of Education President Dan Bales, Chicago White Sox Vice-President Roland Hemond, Sox manager Tony LaRussa and members of his coaching staff (including ex-Tiger Eddie Brinkman) and a scattering of current White Sox players.

Ron Hopson, who graduated with Charley from Romulus High School in 1951, made a moving speech concerning interesting and amusing anecdotes about their high school years together, "not talking about Charley Lau, but talking about 'Bus' Lau, because that's the way we knew him from '47 to '51. Bus Lau was, first of all, a good friend of all who knew him. He was a good person, a quiet student, humble in his athletic ability and probably one of the hardest working athletes that ever went through this school system. He was always the first one at practice and the last one to leave. He was well thought of enough to be elected class president his senior year.

"I hope that the athletes from this school and from other schools that will play here on this field, a little bit of what Charley Lau was about will rub off; be a good citizen, be a good sportsman, and work hard at all your endeavors, because it paid off for Charley and it will pay off for you," Hopson said.

Ernie Harwell, the voice of the Tigers and a member of the Baseball Hall of Fame, was the guest emcee, and said he "considered Charley Lau a close friend of mine," and added "looking back, it's easy to see that not only did Charley Lau teach us a lot about hitting, but he also taught them a great deal about living."

Wayne County Commissioner Milt Mack had a dream come true, as the renowned Tiger fan was introduced by Ernie Harwell. "I've waited all my life for that," he said.

Councilman Barry Baumann was mentioned by Harwell for his efforts to "make Charley Lau Day a reality." It was Baumann who made the original motion which begat the event, and was supported by councilman Bill Wadsworth.

Perhaps the most touching words came from Roland Hemond, the general manager and vice-president of the Chicago White Sox, who was very close to Lau. Several times he had to stop momentarily as tears flowed freely from his eyes and his voice cracked.

"Charley knows me, and he knows that I have more trouble talking about him, than any other person I have known," he said. "Charley made me laugh many times. He made me the happiest man in Chicago or in all baseball in 1983. I knew Charley with the Braves, in Milwaukee. The greatest move our organization ever made was Charley Lau Day in Romulus was a huge success by any standards, and more than 300 people turned out Saturday for the dedication of the Romulus High School baseball field as "Charley Lau Memorial Field." Charley Lau Sr. and Evelyn Lau, Charley's widow, unveiled a stone monument in the late batting coach's honor. Tiger announcer Ernie Harwell was the emcee of the event, which saw Mayor Beverly McAnally give Lau's White Sox jersey to display. Wayne County Commissioner Milt Mack, State Rep. Jim Kosteva and Congressman Bill Ford were among the politicians present. Sox manager Tony LaRussa signed autographs for anxious youngsters as did other members of the White Sox organization, including coach and former Tiger Eddie Brinkman, as well as a players' contingent.

when our owner along with Tony LaRussa were able to convince Charley to wear the White Sox uniform.

"Our club dramatically improved in 1982 and then to score 800 runs in 1983 and to win the American League West is as great a testament as there can be to a coach, to have a club improve so much in so short a time.

"No club ever suffered more by losing one person, and yet no club continues to benefit more, by having such a man wear their uniform for two years, and we continue to see the benefits of Charley's teachings," Hemond said, his not the only wet eye in the house.

Hemond then gave Charley Lau's uniform to McAnally "to put it where you see fit." Before leaving, Hemond looked at the new centerfield scoreboard and said "I love looking at that 'Charley Lau Memorial Field' sign up there, and, Charley Sr., I feel your name is up there, too.

LaRussa, the sometimes controversial manager of the White Sox, slipped and said "I still think Charley is a genius, it's hard for me to think about 'Charley was,' so I keep it current and say 'Charley is.'" LaRussa added that "one of the rough things is we miss seeing Evelyn and Charley Sr. as much as we used to, and I wish it could work out that we could see them more."

Charley Lau Sr. said "I don't mind telling everyone, that this is a very emotional time for me. And also, it's a happy time.

"One thing I wonder," Lau said, "when a foul ball goes up in the stands, will Ernie please say that somebody from Romulus caught it!"

Williams bound for trial on murder charges

Robert Allen Williams, 29, stood mute Monday during his preliminary hearing before Judge Henry Zaborowski in Romulus 34th District Court Monday on two charges of murder in the first degree and two counts of felony with a firearm.

Williams is suspected in the April 6 double homicide on California Street which left two men, Van Hooper, 24, and David C. Stanley, 28, dead of multiple gunshot wounds to the head.

Police believe, and testimony hinted, that at least one other person may have been involved, although Romulus Det. Sgt. David Early, who is heading up the investigation, said that no other warrants have been issued at this time.

A witness from the medical examiner's office testified that the body of Van Hooper, which was found in the driver's seat of the black, 1980 Volvo, had been shot a total of five times -- four to the head and one to the neck. She testified that all five shots hit Hooper from his right side, indicating the murderer sat in the passenger seat or was leaning in the window.

During cross examination, she indicated that any one of the five shots alone could have caused Hooper's death.

Stanley, who was found in the back seat on the driver's side, had eight wounds, believed to be from six shots. Two of the wounds were through his hands, which the examiner told the judge "would be consistent with someone trying to ward off an attack."

Another witness, who claimed to have known the two dead men as well as Williams "most of my life," testified that the 9 mm gun used in the killing was in his care and was given to him by one of the victims, Hooper.

The man said he looked out and saw two vehicles and one person walking from one car to the other.

He claimed that Williams knew of the gun, which was kept in a locked case, because "a week before the murders, he (Williams) was helping me move up north. We broke down on I-94 and took some shots at a sign, then put it (the gun) away."

A munitions expert testified that casings found where the breakdown occurred matched those found at the murder scene. "Bullets are like fingerprints," he said, "no two are alike."

According to the witness, he drove Williams to his home in Taylor, then returned up north only to find the gun was missing. "I drove back here and asked Bob about it. He said he'd bring it over later because his parents were home then."

He went on to testify that at approximately 5:30 a.m. the next morning -- roughly four hours after the murders had been committed -- Williams woke him up, knocking at the door. "I let him in, and he told me Van and Dave were dead. He just told me they were dead, that they had been shot. He told me 'they' had then thrown the gun in a river."

When asked if Williams had told him that he had shot anyone, the witness said "no."

The bodies of the two men, both Taylor residents, were discovered by Romulus Police Officer Daryl Poe, who was answering a suspicious vehicle call. One resident of California Street testified that he had heard "what sounded like a car backfiring, then racing its engine like it was stuck in a ditch." The man said he looked out and saw two vehicles and one person walking from one car to the other, but "didn't think too much of it; it's a pretty deserted street and guys and girls (park there)."

The defense attorney argued that there was no evidence linking him to the scene or the murder. The prosecuting attorney argued that the charges of first degree murder should stand because there was, he said, "obvious premeditation."

Zaborowski agreed, saying that "the circumstantial evidence shows there was premeditation involved in the murders, with the two vehicles, the remoteness of the area, the way the gun was procured, the promise to return it then later saying it had been thrown in the river.

"I find strong probable cause," Zaborowski said. Williams was bound over for further arraignment at 9 a.m. on May 23 in Wayne County Circuit Court. Zaborowski continued to deny bond to Williams, because he "feels the evidence is strong."

Early had confirmed last week that the probable motive was revenge, stemming from an alleged act of "sneaking."

Romulus police are continuing their investigation, and ask that anyone with information call the department at 941-8400.

Out of the frying pan . . .

Our photo of the Kiwanis Club's ever-successful pancake breakfast which ran on the front page of last week's Roman, inadvertently left off three of the names (actually, the gremlin in the computer system ate it). Along with John Lewkowicz, shown flipping flapjacks for all they were worth were Dave Ferdon and Ron Brugger, along with assistant chef Fred Hay Sr. Sorry guys!

Suspected murderer Robert Williams was transported from Romulus' 34th District Court Monday to a Wayne County jail after Judge Henry Zaborowski denied bail and bound Williams over to Wayne County Circuit Court where he will face two charges each of murder in the first degree and felony with a firearm. Williams was transported by Romulus Det. Sgt. David Early (right) and officer Michael Ondejko (not pictured).

"THE DEALER THAT CARES"

New Japanese 'Super Pill' Insures Rapid Weight-Loss
No Dieting — Eat All You Want, Pill Does All The Work

BEVERLY HILLS, CA — An exciting new "all natural" weight-loss "Super" Pill developed by the JMA (Japanese Medical Association) has just been approved for distribution in the United States. Reportedly, it can guarantee that you will lose more than a pound a day without dieting, from the very first day until you reach your ideal weight and figure. News of this "Super Pill" is literally sweeping the country. It's called Amitol and there has never been anything quite like it before.

"Flushes Calories Right Out Of Your Body"

What makes Amitol so thrilling and unique is its reported ability to flush calories right out of your body. Amitol is completely safe, it contains no drugs whatsoever. Its ingredients are derived solely from the Konjac root which grows primarily in Northern Japan.

Why the Konjac root? It has been used in Japan for over 1600 years to produce rapid and natural weight-loss!

Japanese studies verify that Konjac root actually prevents fat producing calories from being absorbed into your system. They say it does this by surrounding much of the fats, proteins and carbohydrates you have eaten with a protective viscous coating which is then gently flushed out of your system. And according to Japanese research this produces absolutely amazing results.

And who can disagree! Amitol (although brand new to this country) is already being called by many people, "the most exciting weight-loss breakthrough of the century." On Main Street

"If they really want to clean up this community," the caller said, "then why don't they find some way of detouring those huge trash (she didn't use that word) trucks which come down Main Street every day on the hour?" "I've been a resident of Belleville for 35 years and, I can't blame people for wondering what's happening to our city. We have a beautiful lake, but if businesses continue to leave, that's about all we will have."

Despite the negative sentiment, some businesses remain optimistic that Belleville is going through a "transition period" and, as in the past, "things will improve."

Just ask Ted Hooten, Jr., owner of Hoot's Chickenanny on High Street, who says "business has never been better..." "Sure the city is having a problem," Hooten says, "but most cities across the United States are. I don't feel Belleville is going down the drain. I sincerely believe that it's a business attitude. We have to continue to provide a service that the customer needs and we have to do it better than those who set up shop in the large shopping centers."

"Believe it or not, we still have an edge on those shopping centers. We know our customers on a first name basis. What large shopping center can duplicate the friendly service that a local businessman or woman can offer?" But, here's a differing view put in poetic form by Belleville's Park E. Gregory.

And Still the Trash Trucks Roar
The ghosts of empty stores stare
Upon the dusty sidewalks where
Once walked the buyer
Who came to spend his money there.

But now he hears a clarion call
To seek a bargain in some distant mall,
And though the village cries in pain
It's the course of time that changed it all.

We wash the street, scrub off the grime,
Try to change the path of time.
When this adventure has worn thin
The gold's still gone but where's the crime.
Thanks, Park, for your thoughts.

And, here's a note from Gloria Gardner who has something to add to last week's "Our Town" column.

Dear Mr. Mooradian: "I was please to read about Janet Oliver's School of Dance, dance recital. I am sure it was inadvertent that the date of the recital was not included in the story. To clarify: The benefit to help raise funds for Belleville's Tiger Booster Club will take place on Friday, May 10 and Saturday, May 11 at 7 p.m. at the Belleville High School Auditorium.

The dance recital is based on the music of Tchaikovsky's "Sleeping Beauty". The dancers have worked hard all year preparing for this part of the recital. Having watched these young dancers I know it will be a treat for everyone to come and watch."

Sorry about overlooking the pertinent information.

And, one more before we wrap it up for the week. This one's from Nancy Skelly of Sumpter Township.

Dear Mr. Mooradian:

"Thank you very much for publishing my letter on the proliferation of landfills in Sumpter Township. We, the people of Sumpter, hope this will help fight this dump and any others to come, because we have had our share.

We deeply appreciate the coverage The Associated Newspapers has given us, and thank you once again for giving us the chance to speak our opinion."

Romulus sets energy meeting

The City of Romulus began participation in the State of Michigan's Community Energy Management Program. The program was created to promote energy conservation within the community by utilization of existing local resources.

The program consists of three sectors: small business, municipal, and residential.

The small business section of the program will provide energy audits for local commercial buildings. Auditors, unemployed citizens hired and trained by the State Energy employees, will then be able to suggest energy conservation measures which can save money.

The municipal section also will utilize energy saving suggestions, but these shall be implemented at the various local government buildings.

The residential sections makes use of thermogram imagery depicting home heat loss. Residents may view these thermograms at neighborhood open houses and gain an understanding of their own home heat loss problems. Also trained volunteers will suggest and explain energy saving improvements that homeowners can use to save money.

The Romulus Community Development Department is now assembling a Steering Action Committee to administer the program. The department hopes to involve citizens for all parts of the city.

A meeting will be conducted 7:30 p.m., Thurs., May 9 in the Community Room at City Hall to discuss the Energy Program. Homeowners interested in saving money on energy costs are strongly urged to attend the meeting.

For further information, contact John Said at the Community Development Department at 941-0666, extension 242.

They will also talk about the restoration of the historic home located on the Franklin Robbe Farm on Haggerty Road. The home will be restored into a historic museum for the Belleville, Van Buren and Sumpter communities.

Russell is top speller in district

By HOLLY MEDLEY
Special to the ANP

You can bet that Tobi Russell will always remember how to spell the words, "astrogator" and "harlequin". Spelling those words correctly opened the door for the eighth grade South Middle School student to capture top honors at the district spelling bee championship and they were her ticket to the state competition.

By winning the district bee title, Tobi advanced to the state finals which were conducted at Larwrence Institute of Technology.

"I feel very fortunate to have been in three district bees and two state bees," said Tobi. "It has allowed me to meet many new people. One thing my parents have taught me is to be a gracious winner and a gracious loser. I hope I have been both," Tobi commented.

Runner-up was Jennifer Chatzka from North Middle School.

The district spelling bee included representatives from Van Buren, Romulus, and the Ypsilanti school district.

Our town

Here's what is happening in "Our Town" this week:

You don't have to be an outdoorsman to experience the thrill of the hunt, says Belleville Postmaster Patrick J. Tobin. Collecting stamps is an easy and educational way to discover the excitement and beauty of the animal world he says.

For the Spring philatelic season, the Postal Service is featuring the recently issued block of four 22-cent commemorative Duck decoys stamps. An abundant supply of these stamps and other colorful commemoratives are on hand at the main post office and all stations and branches.

The scenes and subjects artfully depicted on commemorative stamps give people glimpses of the rich history and culture of the United States and its natural resources, Postmaster Tobin says.

Stamp collecting is the world's most popular hobby with more than 22 million enthusiasts in this country alone.

For those interested in starting a stamp collection with an animal theme, the Post Office has available the "Animal and creatures of the Sea" collecting kits and the "American Wildlife Album" in addition to the Duck Decoys issue. Also available are the 1984 Definitive Mint Set, the 1984 U.S. Commemorative Mint Set and the 50 States Birds and Flowers Mint Set. All include animal or wildlife stamp issues.

Postmaster Tobin invites anyone hunting for knowledge and fun to visit the post office to capture exciting wildlife on stamps.

The Romulus Recreation Department is offering a summer dance program, recreation officials reported this week. Classes will be available in baton, tap, jazz and ballet.

The 8-week, 45-minute sessions will commence on Wed., June 20 and run until August 14. There must be a minimum of four students in each class or the class will be cancelled, rec. officials stress.

No class will begin before 4:30 p.m. The cost for the 8-week session is $12. For further information, please contact the recreation department at 941-0666, extension 254.

Students at Haggerty Elementary School in the Van Buren School District chipped in to "Help Save the Lady".

Under the leadership of Pat Touse, Compensatory Education Teacher, Pat Stacey, aide, and Barbara McDonald, parent-helper, the students raised $790 to contribute to the Statue of Liberty Foundation.

Over 1,100 items, consisting of calendars, phone books, and chocolate Statue of Liberty candy bars were sold by the enterprising students. Several students received special prizes for their efforts.

Teacher Nick Maniaci's fifth graders and MaryAnna Bradshaw's second graders, each were treated to pizza parties for classrooms selling the most items.

Haggerty School students for their most generous contribution.

Ms. Pat Touse's Compensatory Education Reading Program at Haggerty is also paying off in huge dividends as students are introduced to a unique approach to reading. With the help of Pat Stacey, a teacher's aide, Touse introduced a linguistic approach to reading for certain qualifying students.

The students received "I Can" buttons, which were awarded after completion of their first book using the new method. "The program emphasizes repetitious patterns and initial consonant substitution techniques," Touse explained. "This type of program doesn't 'isolate' sounds. Spelling and oral reading are very important and integral parts of the program.

Teens who are looking for something to do this summer should contact the Ann Arbor-based Catherine McAuley Health Center which is recruiting youth for its volunteer program.

Two information meetings for interested teens will be held at Catherine McAuley Health Center, 5301 East Huron Drive (572-4025).

Teens may learn more about the program at 6 p.m. May 13 or 10 a.m. May 18 in the auditorium of the Education Center. Teens age 14 and over will be eligible to participate in the program which will run from June 15 to August 31. Teen volunteers will be asked to work four hours per week and will have the option of continuing their work during the school year.

WC 3 has real estate program

A nine-week Real Estate Program will begin May 20 - Monday and Wednesday from 5 to 9:30 p.m. - at Wayne County Community College's Downriver Campus, 21000 Northline Road, Taylor.

Topics included in this specialized offering include real estate law, brokerage, finance and contracts and a variety of other realty-related matters.

Crilly of Real Estate Programs Unlimited. "Our program, devised for the Downriver Campus at WC3 will feature a range of 'real-life' real estate techniques."

Further information concerning the WCCC Real Estate Program is available by calling 374-2700. Registration for Wayne County Community College's spring term begins May 14.

Study Club learns about defense

Officer Paul Katanski, certified Class III officer with the Van Buren Township Police Department, was the featured speaker at the April meeting of the GFWC Belleville Area Intermediate Study Club.

Officer Katanski, who holds a second degree black belt in Tae Kwon Do and a first degree black belt in Hap Kido, spoke on self-defense for women.

The meeting was held at the Kirkbridge Drive home of Kitty Miller and attended by 14 members and guests, including Reia Clark, former treasurer of the Study Club, who attended from Okeanos. Refreshments for the meeting were provided by member Kitty Davies.

Study Club members endorsed a resolution supporting National Library Week, and approved payment in full to the State of Michigan for the purchase of a traditional large, brass historical marker honoring the ghost-village of Rawsonville.

Kitty Davies, chairman of the club's Gifted Education Committee, made a brief presentation on Olympics of the Mind, and members formally agreed to sponsor a team of gifted children in the upcoming Olympics. Robbe Farm Country Fair Chairman Sharon Polifroni announced that the club was beginning to take applications for craft demonstrators and bake sale booths for the September 14 event. The call to GFWC National Convention, to be held June 2-6 in Houston, Texas, was read, and member Connie Etter was appointed to serve as the club's official delegate.

The May meeting of the GFWC Belleville Area Intermediate Study Club will be held May 17 and will be the traditional "Ladies Night Out." The winner of the Genevieve Clark Memorial Scholarship will be the guest of honor. Anyone who needs more information about GFWC or local club projects should contact club President Gloria Gardner at 697-9209.

BPW wins district trophy

The Belleville Business and Professional Women's Club was hostess to the Spring District Meeting of the Michigan Federation of BPW on Sunday, April 14.

Brunch was served at 1 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall in Wayne. BPW members from eight clubs were in attendance - Allen Park, Belleville, Dearborn, Lincoln Park, River Rouge, Taylor, Trenton and Wyandotte.

The Belleville club had 22 members present out of a total club membership of 44. Because of the good attendance, Belleville was awarded the 26-inch white Trophy of Nike.

Nike is a Greek goddess who depicts forward progress and is the symbol of the National BPW Federation.

Belleville member Bonnie Pavlat, district director, conducted the business meeting. Pavlat has held the position for two years and will be leaving office as of this month.

Karen Geisler, vice-president of the Michigan BPW Federation, was the state representative guest. Geisler related details of the upcoming state convention at the Grand Traverse Resort in Traverse City and the National BPW convention in Hartford, Conn.

The program of the day consisted of the speeches given by four Young Careerist candidates, who were vying for the District YCW honor.

The Young Careerists were Lori Beth Dobson of Allen Park, a police officer for the City of Allen Park; Rosemary Knowles of Belleville, an administrative secretary at Wayne County Community College; Linda Leone of Lincoln Park, a licensed practical nurse; and Sherry Ann Blaha of Wyandotte, dance studio owner and teacher. Three guest judges selected Dobson as the winner. Dobson will compete with 12 other Young Careerists at the state convention in May.

Election of district officers for 1985-1986 was conducted. The new officers were installed by Peggy Kiss of Lincoln Park BPW Club. Among the new officers is Sophie Zoller of the Belleville Club, who is the new recording secretary.

The upcoming Belleville Strawberry Festival was advertised and emphasized with strawberries pictured on the name tags, strawberry on the programs, the same fruit on the floral table and strawberries as the desert.

A Canton exodus?

Has an apparent lack of harmony among several Canton Township department heads and Supervisor James Poole affected the efficiency of governmental operations?

We do not claim to know the answer to that question but what we do know is that strained relations in township hall need to be analyzed rather than ignored.

Several township employees last week lashed out at Poole, criticizing his style of management, ability to work cohesively with others and the amount of hours spent in township hall. Poole defended his performance, claiming that his record and results "will speak louder than a few disgruntled employees."

Canton Finance Director Mike Gorman and Grants Coordinator Terry Carroll are the latest department heads to leave township employment; others reportedly are preparing to leave. Some are blaming the structure of township government for the alleged morale problem.

Is there a serious problem in the administration of the township or are we to believe that the complaints are normal employee-employer disagreements? Would a city manager form of government better serve township residents? There are no simple answers or magic solutions.

On April 17, 1985 we commended Canton officials for the efforts of a unique steering committee that is examining the needs of a disenchanted and understaffed police force. The communication among policy makers and public safety employees will, we believe, form the basis of meaningful solutions to the problems outlined recently in a township-funded study.

Reports of administrative dissatisfaction also must be addressed in an environment of open communication and cooperation. To simply dismiss complaints as unfounded would not be appropriate until a more thorough investigation has been conducted.

It would behoove the township board to take a look at the existing administrative situation and serve as a source of constructive advice and councilman if and where needed.

Some department heads and Supervisor Poole have publicly fired their verbal salvos. What must now occur is a period of brainstorming and exchange of opinions in an atmosphere conducive to compromise and change.

Canton Township leaders do not want to be saddled with a combative reputation that will adversely affect their ability to attract qualified persons to public service in the future. If there are problems to be dealt with, the time to seek and implement solutions is now.

Moving right along

Driving north on Wayne Road the other day, I could not help but take note of the Algiers Drive-in as it stands in a state of disassembly. This familiar site to so many is being made ready for a new shopping complex.

The sight of this changing scene at the corner of Wayne Road and Warren triggered several random thoughts. It's been said that, "The only thing that we know will stay the same is that things will continue to change." Why is it then that so many are so inept at coping with the constant evolutions that life predictably has to offer?

People doggedly cling to what has been, no doubt because they fear the unknown. Unless they have "always done it that way before," or it is the way "everybody does it," then different approaches, new experiences or varied procedures are avoided like the plague.

I have witnessed this tendency through my years, but as yet have failed to appreciate it. Curious that, with some exceptions, we don't enjoy reading the same novel over and over, viewing the same movie repeatedly, or eating at the same restaurant every day. Why then are so many reluctant to experience the adventure, stimulation and joy so often brought by change?

Perhaps it is that we listen to the prophets of doom who whisper in our ear, or crawl into our consciousness through our subconscious. "It won't work." "We tried that once and failed." "You'll never make it," a chorus of voices prophesy.

So it is that even when we know that something new or different is inevitable, we hold fast to that which we have become accustomed. We do this even when we want the change to occur and know that it is in our best interests. We are, in fact, creatures of habit.

I am reminded of the story about the man who slipped over the edge of a cliff. He broke his fall part way down by grabbing hold of a limb protruding from the mountainside. Holding on for dear life, he began to cry out for help. "Is anyone there?" he screamed.

"I am here, my son," came a voice that could belong to no other.

"God, is that you?" the man asked. "Save me, Lord, I will do anything!"

"I will save you, my son," came the reply, "The only thing you must do is to let go of the limb."

A long silence followed, and then the man said, "Is anyone else up there?"

Amusing, but true. Despite overwhelming evidence that things must change, even when a positively motivated helping hand offers a plausible solution, we refuse. Why? Because it is not what we have prejudged to be the outcome.

Life is like a movie that goes on whether we like it or not. Some "scenes" are overexposed and some are underexposed. Yet, some of the frames of life are "perfect" and it is those perfect moments that we live for, that make all the others tolerable. If we try, however, to stop the action, locking the projector on "freeze" for too long, then we risk destroying what we love and cherish.

Only when we get better at "performing," "producing" and "directing" ourselves through the "scenes of life" will there be fewer "outtakes," fewer events to which we wish we had not been exposed, fewer frames that should not have been viewed.

Change is a part of life, and forward motion must not only be tolerated, it must be welcomed. If we become preoccupied with our fears, if we become possessed with negative thoughts, then we will miss out on the greatest treasures of life and grow old before our time.

See you next week.

Small business salute

More than 14 million small businesses nationwide are being honored this week during the annual observance of Small Business Week. The theme of the 1985 celebration is "Small Business: America at Work."

How important are small businesses in our society? The statistics provide an insight into the role of small business—they employ 48 percent of the private work force, contribute 42 percent of all sales in the country and are responsible for 38 percent of the gross national product.

Our small entrepreneurs make their contributions despite staggering odds against their success. One of every two new small businesses will fail within the first four years of operations, studies show.

Our local small business community has not only made significant contributions to the economy, they also have provided a positive impact on the community. Small business owners generally are the ones who spend long hours on the job and then also take time to participate in civic and charitable organizations. They help form the backbone of a tight-knit community through their enthusiastic support of a wide range of local projects.

We salute small business entrepreneurs for their creation of new businesses and new jobs. For it is through their drive that new opportunities are created and the American dream continues to be realized.

Maintaining library

To the Editor:

Among the recent recommended budget cuts for the 1985-1986 school year in the Wayne-Westland District is the elimination of media clerks in the elementary school libraries.

Thousands of dollars have been spent for the upgrading of the elementary school libraries in the past 17 years. The library clerk is responsible for not only books but many other teaching aids such as films, filmstrips, posters, tapes, prints and vertical files only to mention a few. Equipment such as projectors, recorders, players of all sorts are also the responsibility of the clerk as are all inventories for the above.

What about the student who needs to research a project, needs extra help or experience using the library? How much can a classroom teacher do when she/he must bring 30 students to the library for 1/2 hour per week? Who will check the books in and out and put them away? Can a classroom teacher be expected to do all this and help her students too in a short period of time?

And what will happen if the school library is not cared for and maintained? Books lost, stolen, in a state of disrepair, equipment misplaced and broken and a general deterioration which will continue until the library is either staffed again or eroded away.

In a time of "Getting Back to Basics" can we really afford not to give our kids every opportunity they can get to read?

Can we go back to volunteer help? The library clerks have a clause in their contract which states they cannot be replaced by volunteer or co-op help. This contract was voted on and approved by both administration and the Board of Education.

Considering what there is to lose can we really afford to make this cut?

I don't think so.

RUTH BELVITCH

Not on strike

To the Editor:

It's just a good thing God above has never gone on strike because He wasn't treated fair on things He didn't like.

If He had ever once sat down and said, "That's it, I'm through. I've had enough of those on earth — so this is what I'll do. I'll give my orders to the sun, cut off your heat supply, and to the moon, give no more light, and run the oceans dry."

"Then just to make it really tough and put the pressure on — turn off the air and oxygen till every breath is gone."

Men say they want a better deal and so on strike they go. But what a deal we've given God, to whom the world we owe! We don't much care whom we hurt to gain the things we like. But what a mess we'd all be in if God should go on strike!

Unpaid debt

To the Editor:

David Willett's column of July 25, 1984, "A Debt Still Unpaid", is among the best articles I've read on POWs and MIAs in my 14 years of close involvement with the issue.

I have shared copies of the editorial with many other supporters of this cause. Even if they put off forever (as I almost did) writing to thank Mr. Willett, they have nevertheless offered many favorable comments.

In addition to expressing thanks, I'm also writing to urge further editorial analysis. Unless I'm reading more into Mr. Willett's words than was intended, he has stated a position very close to a proposal our organization is advocating.

He said: "Pressure from the United States and the international community must be brought on the Vietnamese government to give a fair and

Asset to Inkster

To the Editor:
This is to highly commend your staff writer Ms. Christine Rizk for her thorough and well written articles in which she covers and captures the City of Inkster. She has been especially advantageous to the Inkster Library in helping us advertise our community oriented programming.

And, though I am leaving the city to continue along my career path, I hope that Chris will continue to cover the Inkster Public Library's program and service announcements.

I am certain I echo the thoughts of other city officials when I say that Christine Rizk is, journalistically, a great asset to this locale!

Miller is scapegoat

To the Editor:
Either the next campaign for mayor of Inkster has already begun or certain Inkster councilmen are trying to make a scapegoat out of Inkster's first woman mayor, Betty G. Miller.
I don't know whether she did it as a gesture of friendship or simply as an effort to get former city inspector Harry DuChesne a job which would cut his claim against the city (mitigate damages), but the facts are that DuChesne asked Mayor Miller to write a letter of recommendation to the City Of Wayne, on his behalf, recommending him as the honest and competent employee whom we all know Harry to be. Actually, the Mayor may have had the very best of reasons; BOTH!

In fact, Mayor Miller retired as city clerk in May 1983 and wasn't elected mayor until November 1983. It was between those dates that Harry DuChesne was fired and that DuChesne brought his suit against the city and then suffered through the federally ordered mock hearing before the very person who had fired him.

In theory, the current mayor-council are responsible for continuing to pursue this case in the federal court. If you were to ask your council if they are being kept informed by the city attorney on the progress of the case, I think they will tell you that they are well apprised of the situation. In reality, I don't think that the council—at least not all of them—know half of it.

I feel that the city attorney has kept the majority of the council in the dark as to just how poor have been the chances of winning the case for the city. The question is “Why?”

Perhaps the answer is related to the fact that at a recent hearing on the DuChesne case, an FBI agent was brought in to testify.

And why was there an attempt to keep me out of the courtroom that day, especially as that motion to exclude me came from DuChesne's attorney? And why does the city attorney want to know the identity of the city employee who first contacted the FBI ultimately bringing about a federal grand jury investigation?

A lot of questions and not many answers . . . not yet anyhow. However, the DuChesne case is scheduled to go before Judge Pratt again on May 10 for the hearing of motions.

Through our attorney, the city is asking for dismissal of the suit. DuChesne is asking for partial summary judgement. If either side prevails at all, it will be DuChesne. I think.

In view of other recent decisions, it has probably become clear to the city attorney and to the few councilmen who are, perhaps, being kept informed, that the city's case is lost.

So the hunt for a scapegoat begins. They need someone on whom to pin the blame for the loss of this case which should run up bills of astronomical proportions.

For his part, Councilman Stephen Berry has come up with a game of pin the tail (in this case: tale) on the donkey (in this case: Mayor Miller). A few days ago, Berry got his hands on a copy of the letter that Miller had written on DuChesne's behalf.

He claims that the letter of recommendation was the downfall of the whole case for the city. This in spite of the fact that most of the city council has apparently attested in their depositions that DuChesne was an honest, conscientious employee; the very same thing that Mayor Miller said in her letter.

If Berry really is surprised that the city is going to lose the DeChesne case, then perhaps he should be looking elsewhere for the responsible party.

In my opinion, this is a long awaited opportunity to dump our present firm of attorneys and get a new city attorney. The DuChesne case could have been saved honorably and at little cost less than two weeks after it had begun. And if the loss of the DuChesne case is not the fault of our city attorneys, then blame must rest with councilpersons who have continued to urge litigation of this case right to the bitter end and it is the entire city council that we should dump without waiting for the next election!

Sometimes change is good . . . in this case it would be great.

On the other hand, I could be wrong; maybe the city will win the DuChesne case. Fat chance . . . the odds of winning the lottery are much better in my opinion.

Chief returns to work

He's back on the job and though just a bit worse for wear, he's glad.

Police Chief James Buckley, of Inkster, sidelined more than two months ago from a heart attack that left him wondering about the complexities of the body's physiology, returned to work this month.

The fanfare he received upon his return, judging from the reaction of the audience and city council when his safe return was announced at a council meeting last month, left little worry whether he should return.

“I'm ecstatic,” he said of his return to work, although he admitted he spent most of his recovery time “completely enjoying” himself.

But his return to health still leaves him wondering why he was ill in the first place.

“I was most surprised when they (doctors) told me I had had a heart attack,” he said. “I had just completed an executive physical and a stress test a month earlier and was told I was in fine shape.

Apparently, a bruise on his leg and physical fatigue caused what doctors labeled a coronary occlusion.

The bruise, Buckley said, caused constriction of the leg's blood vessels which in turn, reduced blood flow to the heart, leading to the attack.

“It was just a fluke,” he said of his misadventure.

After being transported to Ann Arbor's University of Michigan Hospital via helicopter to receive treatment there for one week, he returned home, and after six weeks, resumed his police duties, a role he's been familiar with for more than 16 years.

He's glad to be back, although he admitted that Inspector Wilbert Reid, his secretary Joyce and Deputy Chief Michael Kadoura, who during Buckley's absence became Acting Police Chief, did a great job of running things.

The community, and especially Kadoura, is certainly glad to see the Chief's office occupied once again.

Airport gets grant

A Department of Transportation federal grant for $815,400 has been awarded for improvements at Willow Run Airport, Congressman William D. Ford of the 15th District announced.

The Airport Improvement Program (AIP) grant will be used to rehabilitate the deteriorated west apron area with a new overlay of asphalt. The west apron is located adjacent to Hangar One and runs to the administration building.

“Approval of this grant is an important step in helping the airport develop and expand into a full service aviation facility,” Ford said. “These federal dollars will create approximately 50 construction jobs while the west apron is resurfaced.”

The work is part of the first phase of a comprehensive plan to improve and expand Willow Run Airport.

DEPENDABLE.

That one word certainly describes Wanda Burlett, a small bus operator out of the Taylor terminal. In fact, during her solid four years of service at SEMTA, being dependable has been just part of the job.

And we don't just mean getting to work on time and doing a good job. Wanda certainly does that. But just as important to her is knowing her passengers can count on her in special situations. Especially her senior passengers. “I know my older passengers,” says Wanda. “And sometimes they can get a little lost or sometimes be a little late. They know I'm not leaving until they get on my bus.”

Dependable. That's Wanda Burlett. But she also brings other outstanding qualities to the job — just like all SEMTA people who make SEMTA the bus system that works. They're simply doing their best to be the best. As for Wanda, it just means doing it very dependably.

the letter writer

... by ginny eades

Your responses to my column are appreciated. Keep on keeping in touch with me at 41727 Joy Road, Canton, MI 48187 or (313) 455-8892.

Due to space constraints, the original letter to The Letter Writer is always shortened in this column.

MOTHER POURS OUT HEART TO HER SON IN WASHINGTON

Dear Letter Writer:

I desperately need help in writing a letter to my son, Bill. Bill left home right after high school graduation to go to school in the State of Washington. My daughter, who lives with me here in Michigan, recently returned from visiting with me and told me that Bill is overloaded with going to school and working and supporting himself. Bill told my daughter that the only thing that kept him going was my letters. I miss him terribly and want to make sure that he understands that HE CAN COME HOME.

Sincerely, A Loving Mother

Dear Bill:

I picked up your sister, safe and sound, from the airport yesterday morning. She had a marvelous time with you. From what she told me you two packed a whole lot into the few days you were together. She also filled me in on your schedule, i.e. school, work, etc. as well as your apartment and every other detail she could remember.

Needless to say, she came home homesick for you and she transferred that homesick feeling to me. I really do miss you terribly although the thing that keeps me going is that I know you are happy. First, I need you to tell me the truth. Are you really happy? I know your schedule is really tough and you are under a lot of pressure. Please bear with me while I get my feelings out in this letter.

Bill, there is no reason why you have to stay in Washington. In your 20 years on this planet, you have a track record to be proud of. You are a free thinking spirit and have made dynamite and courageous choices each and every day of your life. One prime example is your ability to "not be a joiner and rather exercise your own value system in spite of the pressures on young people today. That kind of stick-to-it-tiveness is rare. If you are feeling too much of a heavy heart - if you feel as though you have made a decision you can't rescind - if you feel that your education is going to take too long the way you are doing it - if you are lonely and simply want to be closer to your family than, for God's sake, come home.

From my point of view the justification for humanity, as we know it, is that we are all on the planet for a reason and our task is to touch each other and keep each other healthy. It seems to me to be our only hope for survival and peace among all men. The only person we have to answer to is ourselves, and if our consciences are healthy, most of us are satisfied. Therefore, pride, other's expectations for us, what others' think, etc., doesn't really matter. We all sleep alone with ourselves. If we are going to have a positive effect on those around us, we have to have a smile on our faces and mean it. I do and I know how good that feels. The more scared I get, the more I smile.

I don't want to rob you of your pride, I just want to make sure that it doesn't get in your way. I brought you into this world with love and I want to conduct our relationship, while we are together, with LOVE.

I hope to tell you hear what I am saying. The only thing that I want from you is truth and your own personal happiness. I am going to have a hard time mailing this letter, but I am going to mail it as I really needed to get these things off my chest. I know a lot of people who think they have a problem because their children are far away from them. In my case, that is not a problem because you could never be very far away from me. You and I have a very special feeling for one another and nothing - especially geography - could separate us. I truly know what it is to love someone. Lots of people never know this feeling. End of lecture - I LOVE YOU.

RESOLUTION: This letter was written in November of 1983. Bill did not come home right away, but he did get overwhelmed in July of 1984 and is back in Michigan. Full speed ahead to Bill and his mother.

It's a family affair in A/CE

It's a family affair in adult community education at Wayne Memorial High School four nights a week for the Carr family.

Upon the urging of her daughter, Margie, Mildred Carr started school this year for the first time in her life. Raised in the West Virginia mountains where the nearest store was 30 miles away, going to school was not a priority for Mildred's family of 14 children.

Her father died when she was 11 and at the age of 14 she ran away from home without ever having attended school. Since then she has been busy rearing her own family of 9 children, five of whom she has raised by herself.

She attended school once for two weeks in Ohio as an adult student, but that has been the extent of her schooling. When asked about the education she is receiving, Mildred replied, "I learned I missed out on a lot of life without an education. I am sure things will get better now."

Mildred's daughter, Margie, will graduate in June from the Adult/Community Education Program. She is working 15 hours per week at the Board of Education as part of the co-op program and is pleased with the opportunity to gain work experience. She loves going to school with all adults without "kids who are discipline problems."

It was Margie who went home after registering for school and convinced her mother to sign up for classes.

Helping others

Volunteers find work rewarding

Darlene Loyer, 17, of Belleville, delivers flowers, feeds people, takes temperatures, refreshes water and runs errands.

Her mother, Sophia, delivers flowers, passes out snacks and runs errands.

Elaine Habel of Belleville makes beds, feeds people and lends a sympathetic ear to people in need.

All of these people do their jobs because they care about others. None are paid for their efforts. They're all volunteers at Catherine McAuley Health Center in Ann Arbor.

The health center honored its volunteers at a banquet April 25 at the St. Joseph Mercy Hospital Dining Room, during National Volunteer Week, April 22 - 28. Catherine McAuley Health Center staff members served the dinner, which was followed by musical entertainment and an awards ceremony.

The banquet honored 340 volunteers, who dedicated 31,115 volunteer hours in 1984 in 42 different service areas. In 1985, the volunteer program has grown to more than 400 volunteers.

People volunteer their time and caring for many reasons. For Darlene, a senior at Belleville High School, hospital volunteering was something worthwhile to do during the summer when she signed up two years ago.

"My best friend suggested volunteering, so I signed up," she says. "I had no desire to be a nurse." Two years later, Darlene has been accepted to two college nursing programs and intends to make nursing her lifetime profession.

"I really like the nurses on my unit. They're really great," she says. "And I like making the patients happy."

The case of Darlene's mother, Sophia, is a case of "like mother, like daughter" in reverse. Loyer started volunteering after her daughter did. Although Loyer works full-time, she says she had "time on her hands" in the evenings and decided her daughter's volunteer work was a good idea for her, too.

Loyer is especially pleased with her volunteer placement because she delivers flowers on the maternity floor and gets to see the babies.

"I love the babies," she says. "If a patient is ready for discharge when I'm there in the evening, I get to carry the baby down. That's my favorite part of the job."

For Habel, a former high school teacher, her volunteer work is an opportunity to meet interesting people and to lend an ear to those who need a listener.

"I try to make the patients feel their needs are important," she says. "I try to be a friend at a time when patients really need someone to listen to them and share their concerns and feelings."

In addition to the helping out with all the routine tasks on a medical floor - feeding patients, making beds, running errands and so on - Habel adds her own special touch. Every week when she's there Habel visits each and every patient in her units to talk to them and to listen.

"I'm busy from the time I get there until I leave," Habel says. "If I've helped to make someone's day brighter, then that's my reward."

Those dedicated volunteers represent just a few of the many volunteer opportunities available at Catherine McAuley Health Center.

Volunteers can use their skills to help throughout the Catherine McAuley Health Center. They can perform clerical duties, answer call lights, visit patients, run errands and make beds.

Volunteers also can be found in the emergency room supporting distressed families, in pediatrics, conducting craft projects, holding holiday parties in patient units and relieving the tension of chemotherapy patients.

"The value of the precious time and caring that volunteers give cannot be measured," says JoAnne Desmond, director of volunteer services. "They add a special touch to our environment which is unique."

"While offering unencumbered caring to our patients, families and the staff, volunteers inspire others, both inside and outside of Catherine McAuley Health Center to do the same, thus helping us to provide much needed high touch in our ever-increasing high-tech environment."

Volunteer placement is available in the following service areas: St. Joseph Mercy Hospital; Reichert Health Building; Ambulatory Surgery Facility; Hospice of Washenaw; Maple Health Building; Huron Oaks Chemical Dependency Facility in Ann Arbor; and Arbor Health Building in Plymouth.

Volunteers will be needed at Mercywood Hospital in Ann Arbor in late spring. Mercywood provides specialized mental health programs for adolescents, adults and older adults.

Information about a summer teen program will be available May 1.

For more information on volunteer opportunities at Catherine McAuley Health Center, call the Volunteer Services Department Office, 572-4159.

dan's dogs

by dan a. morris

Editor's Note: Dan Morris has been a professional dog trainer for more than 20 years and has worked in all phases of dog training. If you have a specific problem, his advice is available by writing to him in care of Associated Newspapers Inc., P. O. Box 578, Wayne, Michigan 48184. He will reply in this column.

I've written recently about choosing the right training school for your puppy. Just as important, if not more so, is picking the right veterinarian. The choice is as critical as picking out the family physician. Because I consider our own veterinarian the best, his reputation will be used as a measurement to look for when choosing your own. Veterinarians see hundreds of animals a week, many of which try to bite them, yet they are expected to examine, diagnose and, if necessary, heal each and every pet they see. These "patients" mess on the examining table, snarl or urinate and still, the doctor continues his examination without complaint.

The veterinarian is expected to rave about every animal, compliment each owner on his choice of breed and act impressed by the conformation of that animal. (Talk about stress!!) Our veterinarian does possess these qualities and we consider him exceptional, but, there's more to being a veterinarian than having a pleasing personality and the patience of Job.

This is what you should look for: The veterinarian's waiting room and examining room should be spotless. The smell of disinfectant should be obvious. Naturally, the veterinarian's office cannot be germ proofed any more than the family doctor's office can, but the area should be as clean as possible, considering the traffic in and out of his waiting room.

Appointment, should be relatively on time - meaning the veterinarian's secretary or assistant is concerned and aware enough to judge the length of individual appointments.

Charges should be reasonable. When we consider how we rely on the doctor's opinion and how our dog's life may depend upon his skill as a surgeon and diagnostician, the price should not be questioned! Our pet may never be placed in a life or death situation, but that one time he is, we will be grateful to pay any amount to save his life.

There's a bond created between veterinarian and patient which becomes difficult if not impossible to break. Most veterinarians deserve this loyalty. Ours does, and I hope you are as satisfied with your veterinarian as we are with ours.

All I can say is, "Thanks, Dr. Stuart Morrison."

DENTAL DIALOGUE

NUMBER ONE

FREEDOM OF CHOICE

Freedom. The very foundation of America's greatness. The freedom to choose your family dentist is your right, and has long been a tradition. A tradition that makes sense because it puts you in charge. You decide which dentist, which location, and which treatment you receive.

Traditional dentistry gives you the freedom to choose, freedom to change dentists, freedom to say no, freedom to seek specialty care.

But, be aware. Through changes in your employee benefit program, you may now be faced with alternatives to traditional dentistry. These alternative plans are called by different names and may contain restrictions. Some may limit your freedom to choose.

Your family's dental health means more to you than it ever could to anyone else. Can you afford to let someone else make your decisions when your family's dental health is at stake?

Before you give up your precious freedoms, think it over carefully!

You and your family dentist... prevention at its best!

WC3 students garner top honors in culinary arts

One April 14, 12 major culinary arts awards were won by students of Wayne County Community College at the 12th Annual Hospitality Industry Culinary Arts Salon. According to WC3 Culinary Arts Instructor and Chef Peter Sugameli, an exhibition of cuisine as was recently held at the 1985 Michigan and Great Lakes Food Service Show does many things. Among key features of such an event, area chefs have the opportunity to display their most innovative work before their peers, as well as to the community-at-large.

"We are very proud of our students and for the awards made to them in categories of Bronze, Silver and Honorable Mention in specialized culinary events," said Chef Jeff Gabriel, winner of the special gold medal during the Culinary Olympics held in Frankfurt, West Germany, last October.

Chef Gabriel not only shared his skill and knowledge with other chefs while in Frankfurt, but continues to do so through his instruction at WC3's Culinary Arts Program.

"Culinary exhibitions are the true display windows of our profession, reflecting not only the daily practice of this endeavor, but also for keeping the public abreast of apprenticeship activities and other enhancements in the art of cooking," Gabriel explained.

The purpose of the Culinary Arts Salon was to demonstrate culinary skill and ability in a number of cooking areas. Criteria for judging here included composition (ingredients and harmonizing cooking quantity, taste and color with nutrition); preparation (ingredients guidelines, slicing, selection, originality); presentation (uniqueness, appropriateness) and difficulty (workmanship).

The 11 award-winning student chefs representing Wayne County Community College at the Culinary Salon were Onita Sanders (Bronze Medal - Hors d'Oeuvre), third place; Patricia Aerson (Silver Medal - Seafood); Edith Richardson (Silver Medal - Seafood); Julian Carter (Silver Medal - Poultry); Rose Franklin (Silver Medal - Game); Leaden Rogers (Silver Medal-Turkey Paltter; Matthew Jackson (Bronze Medal - Chicken Galatine); Don Halbritter (Bronze Medal - Assorted Variety of Pork); Charles Irvin (Honorable Mention - Roast Beef); Terry Smith (Honorable Mention - Chicken Galatine); and Candice Allen (Silver Medal - Vegetables).

Allan Cook of Canton, 25, (right) took fifth place in the men's open division of the West Bloomfield Half Marathon Sunday, April 21. His time was 1:17:52, placing him sixth overall among the finishers. The ninth annual event was organized by West Bloomfield Parks and Recreation and co-sponsored by Henry Ford Hospital's West Bloomfield Center. Despite record-breaking 83-degree temperatures, 722 runners turned out to start the race, with 666 finishing. The event is one of Michigan's oldest for distance runners. Just two years ago it was snowed out by an eight-inch spring blizzard.

Romulus captures title 'for Charlie Lau'

Romulus, Sean Vernatt has his putout at the plate

Prewitt is All-American

Jerome Prewitt, Northland's 5-9 freshman guard from Inkster, was named today to the National Junior College Athletic Association All-American Basketball Team.

Prewitt had earlier been named to the Minnesota Community College Conference - All-Northwest Division Team, the MCCC All-State Team, the MCCC All-State Tournament Team and the NJCAA's All-Region 13 Team where he was also named as the Most Valuable Player.

For the year Prewitt's stats were 319 of 613 from the field for a field goal percentage of 52.0 percent; a free throw percentage of 70.2 or 80 of 114 for a total of 718 points in 25 games. His 28.7 points per game average is the highest in Northland history. He also had 136 rebounds, 114 assists, 69 steals and four blocked shots.

Prewitt was Northland's Most Valuable Player and led the Northmen to a 21-4 season record and the Consolation Title in the MCCC State tournament.

Jerome is a 1982 graduate of Inkster High School in Inkster and the son of Mrs. Josephine Prewitt of Inkster.

Eagles come up with perfect week

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Coach Dennis Stoh and his Romulus Eagles on Saturday knew what their assignment was and, without hesitation, they got the job done.

With hundreds of baseball fans and dignitaries on hand to pay tribute to Romulus native, Charlie Lau, Stoh and his club put on a show that included a 3-2 victory over Dearborn Heights Robichaud and a 3-1 win over Annapolis that gave the local ball team the tournament championship.

Hundreds of baseball fans gathered at the Romulus High diamond to pay tribute to Lau, a former major league player and pitching coach, whose career was cut short by cancer.

"To see all those people there paying tribute to a fine ball player and man was something I will personally never forget," said Stoh. "And I know each and every one of my players felt the same way. Do you know that the rival team (Robichaud) had another game to go to and they begged their coach to let them stay to participate in the Lau Memorial ceremonies.

"That's really something. And when you get the President of the United States and the Commissioner of Baseball sending messages, well, I can tell you it was something I will never forget. Whoever thought of this ceremony and those who organized it should be congratulated."

Romulus jumped on Robichaud's John Kubitz early as the Eagles struck for two runs in the opening inning thanks to singles by Bob Stratton and Dave Bergman and a double steal which produced the first run. A passed ball and a wild pitch scored Bergman with the second run.

Winning pitcher Tony Yandura, who allowed five hits, gave up two runs in the third inning as the Bulldogs cashed in on a pair of balks. Kubitz had singled to get aboard and Ken Wood walked and after a sacrifice had moved up the runners, Yandura committed consecutive balks, scoring the baserunners.

"Do you know that in the 11 years I've been around this is the first time any of our pitchers had ever a committed balk and when you get two successive ones, it sort of catches you by surprise," said Stoh.

Romulus scored the winning run in the fifth when Jeff Barks was safe on a fielder's choice, then advanced to third when Kubitz unleashed two wild pitches. Barks scored on Bob Sloan's sacrifice fly.

The victory advanced Romulus into the finals where the Eagles met and defeated Annapolis 3-1 behind Donnie Shultz seven-hitter. Shultz got some relief help from Barks. Shultz, a righthander, fanned one and also issued one walk. Stoh said he removed his starter in the sixth after the senior hurler "weakened".

Romulus took a 1-0 lead in the third when Sloan was safe on an error, moved to second when Bergman also reached base on an error, putting runners on first and third. Sloan scored on a fielder's choice by Vernatt. The Eagles increased their lead to 2-0 when Steve Thornberry greeted Carlos Mendez with a two-base hit. He eventually scored when the short-stop booted Terry MacIntosh's grounder.

After Annapolis cut the lead to 2-1, Romulus got an insurance run in the sixth as Yandura was safe on a fielder's choice and Sloan and Stratton came through with base hits.

"It was a perfect weekend for us," said Stoh. "After we managed to get a double loss to Taylor Center out of our system last Monday, we came back and played ball."

Romulus dropped both ends of a twin bill to the Rams 6-3 and 13-4, but swept two from Oak Park 9-4 and 9-5.

Dave Blevins suffered a mild concussion in the second game of the doubleheader with Taylor. He is expected to return to the line-up this week. Blevins, who had a perfect 4-for-4 and was seven for eight before being sidelined, is the No.1 pitcher and among the leading hitters on the team. The 6-3, 185 senior had homered and tripled in the second game.

Little Caesar's title on block

With the Dearborn Heights Invitational title neatly stashed away, Coach Dennis Stoh and his Eagles will begin the defense of their Belleville Little Caesar's baseball title on Saturday.

The "Little Caesar's" tournament, in its third year, is hosted by Belleville High and Coach Tom Fielder.

"Off of what I'm reading in the newspapers and the records so far, I would have to say that defending champ, Romulus, has a good shot of repeating," said Fielder. "But, again, it's baseball and as we all know anything can happen."

Four teams will square off Saturday morning to battle for the 1985 championship. At 10 a.m. Belleville will host New Boston Huron; at the same time at Romulus High School, the Eagles will take on Ypsilanti Lincoln.

The losers will play in the consolation round at 12:30 p.m.

at Belleville High. The winners are scheduled to take the field at 3 p.m., also on the Belleville diamond.

"The tournament brings together local teams and there usually is a lot of interest because of the neighborhood rivalry," said Fielder.

Tigers skip opportunities

When opportunity knocks, one isn't supposed to turn his back.

And Belleville, 3-3 in the league and 6-9 over-all, had opportunities to better its baseball record, but failed to recognize the sounds.

"We collected 11 hits against Fordson but just couldn't score," said Belleville coach Tom Fielder whose Tigers managed to pull out a 10th inning 5-3 victory over Wolverine 'A' Conference rival, Fordson.

"Our pitchers only allowed three hits, but we still had to struggle to win this one," he added.

Fordson struck for a run in the bottom of the first and built up a 2-0 lead with another tally in the third due to Belleville's ineptness on defense. The Tigers got one of those runs back in the top of the sixth and tied it up in the seventh to force the game into extra innings. In the top of the 10th, the Tigers put their act together as a double by Dennis Montie, a walk to Kevin Keeney and a single by Mike Sprau plus a squeeze bunt paved the way for the three winning runs.

Lefthander Steve Else worked the first eight innings, and didn't give up a hit until the leadoff man got to him for a single.

Karl Duda, who missed the school bus, got to Fordson on his own and provided the Tigers with two hits in three trips to the plate.

Belleville buried Trenton 11-2 behind Heath Barnett's seven-hitter. The win evened Belleville's conference record to 3-3 on the season. Barnett was staked to three runs in the first inning, and the Tigers exploded for seven runs in the fourth. Barnett also notched 13 strikeouts and walked two while loser Bob Patrick gave up a 3-run homer to Matt Oddy, his fifth roundtripper of the campaign.

Duda was perfect with a double and single and Brian Bird, Mike Beckley each chipped in with two hits.

On Saturday, Belleville split a doubleheader with Livonia Franklin, losing the opener 6-1, while taking the second game, 5-3. Franklin pitcher Lenny Graham fired a two-hit gem at the Tigers, struck out five and walked two to chalk up the victory. He gave up two stretch singles to Oddy and Keeney while Doug Fallons slapped a double and triple for the winners.

In the nightcap, Bob Tansey tossed a one-hitter and got relief help from Montie after he loaded the bases in the seventh to collect the 5-3 victory over the Patriots.

Steve Else contributed three hits. Barnett, Jim Utt and Duda each had two off of loser Ray Schlatterberg.

Thanks, Lady Luck

Glenn back in 1st place in Northwest

By KEITH A.DeMOLAY
ANP Special Writer

With a lot of skill and a little help from Lady Luck, the Rockets of Westland John Glenn moved into first place in the Northwest Suburban Baseball Conference this week despite splitting a pair of league games with Garden City and Thurston.

The Rockets' league record stands at 4-2 with the Cougars and the Panthers, along with Thurston and North Farmington trailing Glenn by just one game. Franklin is certainly not out of it, either, despite their 2-4 record.

But, as Yogi Berra will tell you, "It ain't over till it's over." And no one is more aware of that than Coach Norm Hoenes and the Glenn Rockets. "It's just as we have predicted," Hoenes said. "North is a surprise, but for sure Garden City, Redford Union, Thurston and us will fight it out. It probably will go down to the wire." The climb to the top for the Rockets started last Tuesday when Glenn took on Garden City on the Glenn field. Starting on the mound for the Rockets was righthander Steve Irwin and the Cougars' choice for this important game was Mike Roffi.

Glenn got to Roffi right away in the first inning when Cass Simpson led off with a walk and stole second. With two away, Brad Martin singled him home and Glenn led 1-0.

The Rockets added to their lead in the second when Dave Husak doubled and Irwin helped his own cause with a run-scoring single. With two out, Chuck Hammontree tripped to deep right centerfield to score Irwin and Glenn increased their margin to 3-0.

Roffi must have felt like he was in a shooting gallery by now but the shots kept coming in the third as the Rockets made it 5-0. Mike Oaks got the second of three hits when he singled, stole second and took third on a wild pitch. By this time, Husak and Irwin had walked to load the bases for Jason McKarge, who promptly singled to right for two runs.

By this time, Irwin had the Cougars painted into a corner as he stifled the visitors on no hits until Brett Wasil's single in the fifth inning, and nary a run until a pair of errors and a fielder's choice broke his shutout in the seventh inning. For the game, he fanned 13 batters and left a lot of them talking to themselves.

"It was probably one of the better high school games I've ever seen pitched," Hoenes said. "But we need someone to win games for us. We depend on Steve a lot but we need someone else to come through with a victory." Glenn added a run in the fifth on doubles by Oaks and Husak and a run in the sixth on a triple by Simpson and a sacrifice fly by Hammontree for the final 7-1 margin.

But on Friday, the Rockets returned to Alumni Field for an encounter of a different kind with Thurston. Thurston won 9-6.

Thurston built a 7-0 lead by the fifth inning and it looked like the Eagles would coast from there. However, Irwin started the inning with a single, followed by walks to Husak and McKarge. Simpson singled home a run, Barber did likewise, and Martin knocked in 2 runs with still another single.

Thurston added two insurance runs for the final margin but Lady Luck helped out when Redford Union beat Garden City, 4-2, to keep the Rockets in first place.

In other games this week, Glenn split a doubleheader with Ypsilanti, losing 10-7 and winning 9-6.

Romulus's Terry Mills is making himself a name on the international basketball circuit as he helped the Michigan Junior Basketball all-star team overpower visitors from the mainland of China during a match-up at Schoolcraft Community College last week. Mills, a 6-9 junior, was named to Parade Magazine's All-American High School Team after averaging more than 25 points and 11 rebounds and six blocked shots per game.

Coach has Vikings running

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Leavy Devoe, a Kansas transplant in Inkster, has the Vikings running faster than ever.

"We're weak in the field events," said the rookie Inkster track coach who took command of the club at the end of the 1984 campaign, "but I'd put these kids up against just about anyone in the running events."

At the recent Central Michigan University Relays, the field unsuccessfully chased the Vikings in the 880-relays where Earl Truss, Robert Slaughter, Michael Henderson and David Laws won the event in the Class B Division in a record (1:30.1) time.

Inkster's mile relay four-some of Earl Truss, Saint-R Edwards, Henderson and Laws has been clocked in 3:21 while the 440-yard relay consisting of the same runners who make up the 880 has posted a 44.2.

Losers to Highland Park and River Rouge in the Suburban Athletic Conference, Inkster has edged Ecorse 64-63. "We spot our rivals a lot when it comes to the field events, therefore, it's really tough for these kids who have to make up the difference in the running events."

Spartans playing 'terrible .500' ball

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Cherry Hill coach Ken Mientkiewicz believes his Spartans should be winning more ball games.

And when one looks at the way Cherry Hill has been "blowing them" you'd have to agree. Up by eight runs going into the last of the seventh, the Spartans lost a 9-8 decision in extra innings to Tri-River Conference rival, Melvindale, last week. They also committed five errors in their 10-5 loss to Southgate, but managed to hang on to a 4-3 victory against Allen Park.

The two setbacks, coupled with their only win last week, gave Mientkiewicz and the club a 6-6 over-all and a 4-4 league record. That's .500 ball, which disturbs the Spartan coach.

"We're playing terrible .500 ball," Mientkiewicz lamented. "We should be winning more of these games. We are making a lot of errors and giving these ball games away."

The Spartan defense fell apart against Melvindale which cost starter, John Gould, a victory. Gould fired six innings of shutout ball before three costly errors in the seventh helped Melvindale put eight runs on the scoreboard. Melvindale then came back and won it with a run in the bottom of the eighth.

Mark Bayliss digested the loss in relief of Gould who worked six and two-thirds innings. The Spartans scored two runs in the first, fourth and sixth innings and single tallies in the second and third innings, building up an 8-0 lead before the proverbial roof collapsed.

John Williamson collected two of Cherry Hill's 10 hits and Rob Bryer also had a pair in four at-bats while Bayliss hammered a two-run homer in the fourth inning and Mike Thibeault also had a couple of hits and two RBIs.

Bayliss struck out 11, walked one and gave up seven hits en route to the 4-3 victory over Allen Park's Jaguars. The Spartans got what proved to be the decisive runs with one-away in the sixth as Bill Laskey singled, Mike Sasseeen was safe on an error and Williamson walked to load the bases. Bob Stephenson followed with a two-run single. Then, Bryer sliced a run-scoring single to break the deadlock.

The Spartans scored one in the fifth to make it a 2-1 ball game as the Jaguars had the lead with single tallies in the third and fourth and scored their final run in the seventh.

Last Monday, Southgate erupted for five runs in the second inning and coasted to a 10-5 win over the Spartans who came back for a single tally in the fifth and two runs in each of the fifth and sixth frames. Gould collected 2 for 4, including 2 RBIs.

"You can't spot a team like Southgate, which is playing for the title, 10 runs then hope to beat them," Mientkiewicz said.

The Spartans have a busy schedule this week which began with Dearborn Heights Riverside on Monday, followed by league-leading Taylor Kennedy on Wednesday at home.

Truss in tradition

Cherry Hill long jumpers have established a winning tradition at the Port Huron Northern Invitational that Eric Truss has helped to perpetuate. The Spartans have never lost the event.

And, on Saturday, Truss leaped 21 feet, 3 inches to win the gold again.

The Spartans finished fourth at Port Huron with the help of some excellent performances from Mike Brown, Mike Johnson and Tony Bleau. Brown was fifth in both the 100 and 200 meter dashes, posting 11.2 and 23.5, respectively, in the events. Johnson finished third in the shot put competition with a heave of 48 feet, 7 inches and pole vaulter, Bleau, earned a sixth place medal when he cleared 10 feet, 6.

Cherry Hill's 400- and-800 relay teams of Don Watson, Curtis Adams, Zarick Duran and Mike Brown wound up fourth (45.2) and seventh (1:34.6), respectively.

Cherry Hill also earned a seventh place medal with its 3,200-meter relay team of Truss, Wayne Stephens, Bubba Zirker, and Quint Lawrence who were clocked in 8:16, while Truss was seventh in the 300-meter low hurdles (40.7) and Zirker finished seventh in the 1,600 meter run (4:37). The 1,600 meter relay team of Brian Hendricks, David Yao, Zirker and Truss had the seventh best time (3:35). Three other athletes: Chris Dziadosz, ninth in the discus, Dominick White, ninth in the shot put, and Scott Baringer, who competed in the pole vault contributed to the Spartans' fourth-place over-all finish.

Cherry Hill zeros in on Tri-River girls track title

Destroying Dearborn Heights Riverside 95-33 last Thursday, undefeated Cherry Hill took a giant step closer to the Tri-River Conference girls' track and field crown.

Coach Jess Shough's Spartans are 3-0 in the league and tuned-up for Saturday's Western Wayne Relays (Saturday at Westland John Glenn) with a pair of league meets this week. They ran Annapolis on Tuesday and Crestwood on Thursday.

Yolanda Brown, a freshman, chalked up three first places and a second against Riverside as she finished first in the 100-yard dash (12.8) and teamed with Andrea Rose, Terrie Crockett and Darcis Braswell to win the 440 and the 880-yard relays. She was second to Rose in the 220-yard dash. The winning time was 29.7.

At the Port Huron athletes finishing in the top eighth were awarded medals.

Cherry Hill medalists included Janet Kopczyk, who was fifth in the shot put (86'8"); Melissa Smiley, seventh in the long jump (14'2"); Yolanda Brown, seventh in the 100-meter (13.59); Jamie Sheahan, eighth in the 100.

Belleville adds Wayne Relays to record

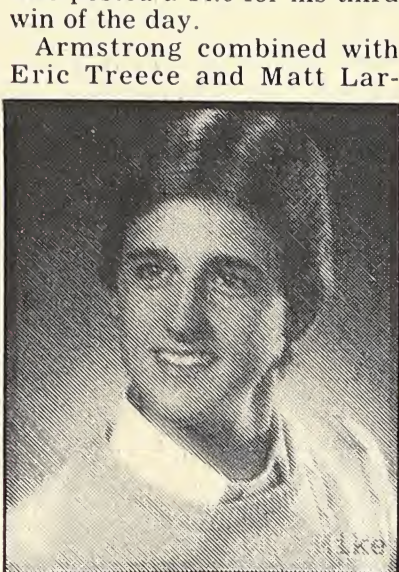

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

Coming off of a superb victory at its own relays, Belleville thinclads added another gem to its track crown as they captured the 1985 running of the Wayne Memorial Relays.

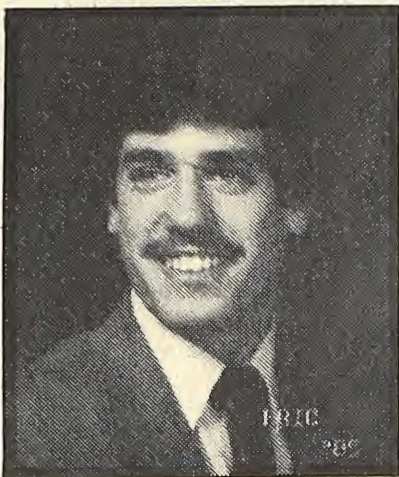

The 15-event Wayne relays which included a field of 10 high school teams, saw Coach Dave Medley's Tigers amass 112 points to beat out host, Wayne Memorial, which finished second with 88. Westland John Glenn runners were third with 60.

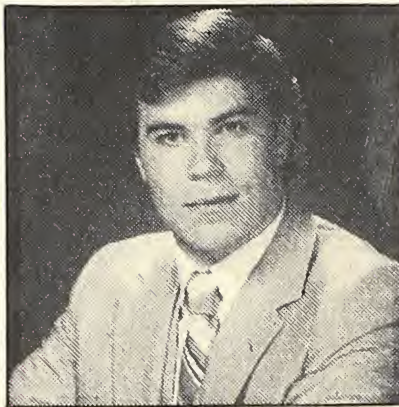

Matt Kirchner

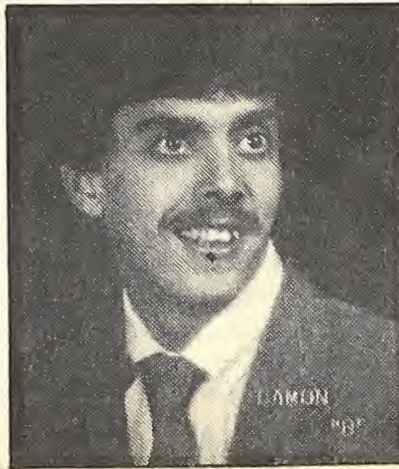

Mike Duff

Eric Schofield

Karl Duda

Damon Sulkey

"Our kids did a tremendous job," said Medley whose runners have now won two consecutive relays and have their eyes on a third, the Hidenfelter Relays. Those relays will be staged Friday night at Westland John Glenn. "This team is maturing in places, but we still have a big step to take before the end of the season.

Belleville claimed six gold medals, including the open high hurdles which went to versatile athlete, Billy Armstrong who posted a 14.6 for his third win of the day.

Armstrong combined with Eric Treece and Matt Lar-cinese to win the shot put relay with a total of 131 feet, 6 inches. He also was featured on the winning shuttle relay team that included in its line-up Duane Barrow, Mark Duff and Aaron McCombs. That foursome was clocked in 65.5.

Belleville also won the discus relay with Larcinese, Ken Kruse and Mike Hardy with their combined performance of 421 feet, 7 inches. The Tiger 4-mile relay team of Scott Harkimer, Rog Inman, George Kapitan and Tim Jackson was unbeatable. They were clocked in 19.50.5. The Belleville 400-meter relay with a line-up of D'Andre Poole, Clarence Patton, Garrin Clark and Earnell ran a winning time of 44.2.

Belleville was runner-up in the pole vault relay competition with Daryl LeMay and Richard Jernigan who had 19 feet, 6 inches.

Belleville also buried Wyandotte 117-16 and Lincoln Park, 116-12, to pad its Wolverine A Conference record to 4-1. They clash with Fordson on Thursday before traveling to Glenn Friday night for the Hidenfelter Relay.

Wayne stashed away three gold medals at its relays thanks to an outstanding effort by Ron Tolson who posted a 9:46.5 in winning the 2-mile run. Lorenzo Flukes hit the ribbon first in the 100-meter dash, crossing the finish line in 10.3 and Coach Bob Lynn's high jump relay team of Al Allen, Todd Bateman and Shawn Crenshaw was tops thanks to its 18 feet, 2 inch combined effort.

The Zebras placed second with their 880 relay of Flukes, Allen, Jeff Wadley and Darren Tatum who ran a 1:30.5 and the mile relay team of Tatum, Wadley, Brett Thirjung and Byron Nolen was clocked in the second best time of 3:26.5.

Wayne has a crucial conference meet this week as it takes on Monroe. If the Zebras can get past the Trojans it will create a logjam atop the Wolverine A Conference with Wayne and Belleville joining Monroe in first place each with one loss.

John Glenn to host Hidenfelter Relays

By TOM MOORADIAN
ANP Staff Writer

After posting relatively easy victories at its own relay and adding the Wayne Memorial Relays title to its accomplishments last week, Belleville marches into the Harry Hidenfelter Relays as "the team to catch". "Belleville definitely has the manpower to win this," said host, Coach Ernie Righetti. "They proved that they can win by taking the Wayne title. They have an excellent club again this year."

Righetti will host the 1985 edition of the Hidenfelter Relays beginning at 4 p.m. on Friday when the field events will get underway. Running events are scheduled for 6 p.m.

Righetti also believes if there is a team or teams that could upset Coach Dave Medley and the Tigers' plan for their third consecutive relay team it is Livonia Churchill and "maybe if the parts come together we can do it," Righetti said.

The field also will include Cherry Hill, Livonia Franklin, Garden City, Inkster, Dearborn Heights Robichaud, Romulus, Taylor Truman, Trenton and Wayne Memorial.

A 10-team field will also gather on Saturday at Glenn for the annual Western Wayne Invitational for girls. The field events will start at 10 a.m. and the running commences at noon. Ypsilanti, the defending champ and a strong contender to repeat, will have to contend with Belleville, Wayne Memorial, John Glenn, Woodhaven, Lincoln Park and Dearborn Heights Robichaud.

Belleville honors swim team

Five outstanding Belleville High swimmers were honored at the Tiger Recognition Banquet staged recently at the high school. The recipients of the awards included seniors Karl Duda, Mike Duff, Matt Kirchner, Eric Schofield and Damon Sulkey.

Duda, Kirchner and Sulkey served as co-captains of the team and were presented trophies for their leadership ability. Duda received the trophy for the Most Outstanding Performance at the State Meet.

Duff received the award for Most Improved Senior; Kirchner was the recipient of the Tommy Petit Award for consistent and outstanding performance throughout the season.

Sulkey received the Harry Hidenfelter Award for outstanding sportsmanship and team work among their teammates and opponents.

Double award winners included Greg Lynch and Matt Stoelton, who were named the Most Valuable Swimmer and also received the Most Points Scored Award. Stoelton was named the Most Improved Junior and also received the Scholastic Award.

Other awards given out by Coach William Snider and assistant coach Greg Cooper went to Raul Estrada, Most Valuable Diver. The Most Improved Sophomore was Troye Pierce and the Most Improved Freshman, Martin Duda.

In the category of Outstanding Performance at the Wolverine "A" League Meet, the top award went to Mike Ackron. Varsity letters, pins or certificates were presented to team members Jeff Thompson, Eric Lawson, David Traskos, Jeff Miller, Wally Rochowiak, Tim Clearwood, Ron Clearwood, Ron Kobish, John Kapitan and Ari Sahrakar.

Representing Belleville on the all-conference team are Duda, Kirchner, Duff, Lynch, Stoelton and Sulkey.

Fair at Flat Rock

Eleven-time Flat Rock Speedway Champion Joy Fair has filed his entry race number of the WCXI Michigan Challenge Cup, set for Monday afternoon, Memorial Day, May 27 at the quarter-mile Flat Rock (Michigan) oval.

The 54-year-old veteran will be at the wheel of his familiar school-bus yellow number 1 for the first event of the three-race Late Model series. The popular driver chalked up six feature wins at Flat Rock in 1984.

Ball's Promotions President Bill Pearsall is very excited about Fair's entry. "A race at Flat Rock wouldn't be the same without Joy Fair. He's a fixture at Flat Rock. He has a large following of fans and is very respected by his fellow drivers." The Pontiac, Michigan resident has competed at many different tracks during his career. He dominated Flat Rock in the late 1960's and early 1970's. Fair started on the pole of a 25-lap feature one lap down and still came back to win the event. It was not uncommon for Joy to start in the last spot in the main event in those days - he was just that unbeatable.

Fair's keen sense of humor and his desire to win remains unchanged today. "Fair is definitely a favorite to win the WCXI/Michigan Challenge Cup," remarked Pearsall. "No one knows Flat Rock Speedway better than Joy Fair."

The easy-going Fair will have his work cut out for him, however, as 40 other drivers are expected to be on hand for the Memorial Day event. Other entries include ASA star Jim Sauter; 1983 Flat Rock Champ Dave Kuhlman; 1984 Flat Rock Rookie of the Year John Maki; and 1984 Checker Flag (Windsor, Ontario) Champ Rick Sheppard. More entries are expected this week.

A dash, heats and three 50-lap features for the Late Models will highlight the activities on Monday, May 27. The Street Stock Division will also be in competition.

A total of over $16,000 in contingency awards has been posted for the three events and series. A $15,000 purse is up for grabs in race number one, and, in a new announcement, $500 of lap money will also be distributed at $10 per lap in the final 50-lap feature.

The Monday, May 27 activities begin with practice at 11:30 a.m., qualifying at 1 p.m.

Special stamps available

One doesn't have to be an outdoorsman to experience the thrill of the hunt, according to Sharon Brown of the Romulus Post Office.

Persons can discover the excitement of the animal world by collecting commemorative stamps available at most local post offices, notes Officer in Charge Brown.

A recently issued block of four commemorative Duck Decoy stamps and other colorful commemoratives are featured. For those interested in starting a stamp collection with an animal theme, the post office offers "Animals" and "Creatures of the Sea" collecting kits and the "American Wildlife Album" in addition to the Duck Decoys.

Animal or wildlife stamp issues also are available through the 1984 Commemorative Mint Set and the 50 States Birds and Flowers Mint Set.

Stamp collecting remains the most popular hobby in the world with more than 22 million enthusiasts in the U.S.
